Smallpox Contained in Deadwood City

Vol. 2

ELECTION SPEECHES SUNDAY, 9 A.M.

THANKS TO THE EFFORTS OF DRA. COCHRAH AND OTHERS, THE SMALLPOX EPIDEMIC IN DEADWOOD HAS BEEN SUCCESSFULLY CONTAINED. LOCAL DISTRIBUTION OF THE VACCINE IS NEARLY COMPLETE. WE CAME UP AGAINST THE DESCRIPTIVE RECORD OF ALL SORTS OF BEEF, BUT THIS WAS QUICKLY CONFOUNDED BY THE INFORMATION THAT THE SAME FARMER WHO PRODUCED THE BEEF HAD ALSO PRODUCED THE SMALLPPOX SHOT. THIS ENVIRONMENT, IN ITS IMPROVEMENTS, IS BREATHE INDIGESTIBLE FOR ALL SORTS OF BEEF.
LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

May 24, 1877

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN,

I am not accustomed to writing letters for publication, or even acquaintances with me at that time, but with what the world now holds, I am not going to admit. All agree to what you are doing. It hangs in the air. It's thick enough. They say what you want to know. Look in their eyes. Everyone knows what you want. But I say that George Harvey can save himself. The man was on his own. If he saw you, Seven Noah and I would contemplate the future, one way or the other. Thank you for the opportunity.

EDITOR PIONEER

I am hereby re-established as the Editor of the Aspen Times in Aspen City, Colorado. The previous letter from Mr. Toomey is published below.

REJECTION

We were surprised as we noticed in the paper, the letter from Mr. Toomey. We published it in good faith.

Health News

If you're experiencing loss of appetite, pain in the heart and back, irregularity, diarrhea, and the general sensation that you have not regressed in weight, you might have taken multiple vitamins. It is not uncommon for people to experience these symptoms when they do not eat properly. The symptoms are caused by various factors, including poor diet, stress, and lack of exercise. If the symptoms persist, it is important to seek medical advice.

Wild Bill Killer Hangs

Jack McCall, after four years of evading justice for the unprovoked killing of "Wild" Bill Hickok in 1876, was convicted and sentenced to hang. In a federal court in the Ninth Judicial District, McCall was found guilty of murder. The court sentenced him to death, and he was hanged on October 23, 1879.

Abused Miners Threaten to Unionize

Miners in the Black Hills are planning to form a union to improve their working conditions. The miners have been mistreated and underpaid, and they are determined to fight for their rights.

Elliottson: Mine Not for Sale

Anyone who follows the news in the Black Hills knows that Elliottson Mines has acquired most of the town's gold claims. The company's new owner, Mr. Elliottson, has inherited the claims after the untimely death of his wife's husband. Mrs. Elliottson is due to open a bank in camp, which will lead us to believe that the prospect of her selling the claims to Harvest is unlikely, but he has been known to work other forms of magic to attain his goals.
ELECTIONS

With the elections approaching, we will soon be hearing speeches from candidates running for Sheriff and Mayor. Citizens of this camp will bear witnesses as we vote the seeds of Democracy! What we do in the coming days will set an example for generations to come. Among the contested positions are Mayor and Sheriff. The race for Sheriff is down to Bullock and Harry Manning. Some may recognize Manning from his current position tending bar at Tom Nutall’s Number Ten Saloon. These two candidates for the office of Sheriff are two men who, socially considered, stand upon an equality: men whose warm-hearted geniality, genial qualities and past record show no error. Harry Manning is a friend to the poor as well as the rich; a hard-working, whole-souled gentleman whose acquaintance is a pleasure and an honor to anyone. On a recent visit to The Number Ten, Harry’s patience was comically displayed as he prudently chided “the regular” about the nightly spilling of the spitoon. “Seems like every time I get it cleaned up, Steve trips over it,” Harry said with a sad smile. Manning also mentioned that, if elected, he’d lobby to purchase a camp fire-wagon. Bullock’s focus may prove to be more on the development of mines and less on fires. Sheriff Bullock’s wife, Martha, will teach the camp’s children in what was formerly “The Chez Ami” located at the end of town. Central to the success of the winning candidate will be his policy on the quality of the water supply in town. Doc Cochran has been regularly treating citizens sickened by toxins and malnutrition in the water, and you can be certain that those voters will keep the issue of water quality at the fore of the campaign. As ever, we must be particularly watchful for interference and fancy footwork from our neighbors in Yankton as the time approaches to endorse a candidate.

ADVERTISE IN THE PIONEER

Outside readers of the Pionier would imagine by glancing over our columns that there are but few merchants in Deadwood, it is not altogether the fruit of our business men that they do not advertise more—many of them are not permanently located, as business men, and they have not beenعراض themselves that advertisements. They may all expect a call from our solicitors
